

the threat of the Religious Right

presented by Eddie Tabash

“Today's hard right seeks total dominion. It's packing the courts and rigging the rules. The target is not the Democrats but democracy itself.” TheocracyWatch.org

This presentation by Eddie Tabash is a sobering and chilling account of how a shift of just one vote on the U.S. Supreme Court could usher in a religious tyranny, and how the upcoming presidential election is pivotal to the future of the Court and to our most basic freedoms.

Tuesday, May 27 from 7-8pm
Public Affairs 2250

Eddie Tabash is a constitutional lawyer in private practice in the Los Angeles area. He graduated from UCLA, magna cum laude, with a B.A. in political science. He graduated from Loyola Law School of Los Angeles in 1976. He chairs the national legal committee of Americans United for Separation of Church and State and Chairs the First Amendment Task Force of the Center for Inquiry and Council for Secular Humanism. He also represents the atheistic viewpoint in debates against some of the world's foremost religious philosophers on the question of the existence of god. He will be speaking on the "Threat of the Religious Right to Our Modern Freedoms."
